Rockwell Automation to name INTECH Process Automation as Solution Partner in the United Arab Emirates

UAE, August 24, 2020 — Rockwell Automation, the world's largest company dedicated to industrial automation and information technology, today announced its partnership with INTECH Process Automation, a renowned system integrator and automation solution provider for the Oil & Gas sector globally. For more than 20 years, INTECH Process Automation has helped major Oil & Gas customers to solve their most pressing issues of instrumentation, control, and electrical automation. With this Solution Partner agreement, INTECH Process Automation is now authorized to deliver Rockwell Automation' solutions and services in the United Arab Emirates.

In line with Rockwell Automation's strategy for growth in the Middle East, this solid partnering with INTECH Process Automation will meet the growing needs of the Middle Eastern market. Rockwell Automation and INTECH Process Automation teams will work closely to provide solutions, services and greater value to the customers in the United Arab Emirates.

Congratulating on this agreement, Assem Salaam, Country Sales Director, Gulf at Rockwell Automation said, "We are very pleased to have INTECH Process Automation joining our PartnerNetwork as Solution Partner. This is an important milestone achieved in the region and we believe it will bring great value to our customers in the United Arab Emirates. With this partnership, we will strengthen our overall position in the Middle East and enhance our solutions availability to our customers in the region."

As a new Solution Partner of Rockwell Automation, INTECH Process Automation is now able to deliver an extensive package of Rockwell Automation's solutions in several industrial automation categories.

"Becoming a Solution Partner for Rockwell Automation in the UAE is an important progression for our company. We are looking forward to accelerating the modernization of industrial facilities in the UAE, through Rockwell Automation's innovative solutions. Our team of professionals is committed to provide superior value to our customers and enable them to achieve an efficient production.” said Huseyn Tarek, Senior Vice President at INTECH Process Automation.
